PERFECTLY SECLUDED

Life is breathing. Yet, we often forget to breathe. Though we need air so much. But we keep forgetting. Experience your personal leap into time at Therasia, a quiet sister island in the cluster of Santorini, next to the volcanic beauty of the caldera.

Breathe again, intensely, consuming yourself, enjoying the gentle shapes of the vineyards and the explosion of the senses. Breathe like you did as a kid. Escape to Santa Irini Retreat, a place as unique as you, where easy-living is the only way of existence.

Santa Irini
RETREAT

We have created Santa Irini Retreat in Therasia, an unspoiled land where tradition meets simplicity, luxury and elegance, with absolute respect to its physical environment and history. We dream of our retreat as a place where visitors will feel they are stepping back in time, for at least half a century. A place where they will experience the serenity of the island, enjoy the breathtaking view of the caldera, appreciate the beauty of the sun literally setting in the villa's courtyard and enjoy their private vegetable garden, the vineyards and the unique surrounding landscape. We wish to offer our visitors an adventure beyond the limits of a typical tourist destination, combining modern and comfortable accommodation with the authentic feeling of a place that has remained the same throughout the centuries!
